Purchase Museum Committee Plans Drive For Project Funds

The Jackson Purchase Museum Committee has received 1,000 special editions of Jesse Stuart's latest book, "My World." The book is dedicated to Murray State University and the people of the area.

The University has presented the 1,000 copies of Stuart's book to the Jackson Purchase Museum Committee of the Bicentennial organization of eight Purchase counties. These books will be given to individuals in the eight counties who contribute $100 or more to the preservation and restoration of Wrather Hall as a Purchase life museum on the MSU campus.

Jesse Stuart will be in Murray on April 20 at seven p.m., to be honored guest at a reception for all persons who donate $100 for his book. He will personally inscribe the editions, which will be in a special edition cover for lifetime protection of this book.

The donation is fully tax deductible, and the reception is free for all who make donations for the book. An attractive certificate will be presented to all who make donations. Inside the new museum will be a plaque with the name of all donors who helped convert Wrather Hall (now on the register of Historic Sites) to a museum.

Funds from the donations of the 1,000 Stuart books will be used to match funding from Governor Julian Carroll, who has pledged to support the museum with funds from the State for its restoration.

Members of the Jackson Purchase Museum Committee of the Bicentennial organization from eight counties: Calloway, Graves, McCracken, Ballard, Fulton, Hickman, Marshall and Carlisle met here last night.

A. W. Simmons Jr., Murray with the assistance of Mrs. C. C. Lowry, Bicentennial Chairman of Calloway County will coordinate the drive for donations in Murray and Calloway County. Simmons is co-chairman of the Jackson Purchase Museum committee with Walter Apperson, Murray. Apperson will coordinate the donation effort in seven other Purchase Counties. Dr. Ken Harrell of MSU will coordinate the donation effort for the books on the MSU campus.

Checks for the books ($100) may be mailed to Max Brandon, Peoples Bank, Murray, Kentucky 42071. Mrs. Lowry will send those who donate for the book invitations to the Jesse Stuart reception and the books may be brought or sent for personal inscriptions by the author.

Those who become museum sponsors by donating for this special edition will insure that Wrather Hall is preserved and converted to a Purchase Museum for our area people.

Questions concerning the donations for the special edition of Stuart's book being printed by the U.K. press may be directed to Walter Apperson, Murray Ledger and Times, 103 North 4th Street, Murray, Ky. 42071 (Phone 753-1916).

Youth Art Month Being Observed At High School

Youth Art Month, a national observance sponsored each March by the Crayon, Watercolor, and Craft Institute and endorsed by the National and Kentucky Art Associations, was promoted by Murray High School with an open house and art contest, sponsored by the Creative Arts Department of the Murray Woman's Club.

Winners were: Kathy May, scholarship award. In the oil and acrylic division, Cheryl Matthews, first; Sonia Johnson, second; and David Frank, third. In the tempera and watercolor division, winners were Kelly Seale, first; Todd Harrison, second; and Janice Rose, third. In the collage division, winners were James Burnley, first; Denise Gilbert, second; and Debbie Suiter, third.

On Wednesday, March 24, parents and the public are invited to the art department during school hours (8:30 to 3:00) to have refreshments, talk with the students and observe them at work.

Art I students are weaving on Inkle, Table, and Frame Looms; tying macramé items such as pot hangers, wall hangings and clothing items; sewing stitchery and applique wall hangings; enameling on copper; and jewelry-making in silver and copper.

Art II students are working on the potter's wheels and making hand made projects using the coil and slab methods in ceramics.

One Injured In Accident Today

Joey George of 404 College Courts, Murray, sustained a broken leg today about 10:00 a.m. when he was struck by a car, driven by Rhonda Edwards of Paducah, on North 16th Street, according to Murray Police records.

The child was treated at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital and transferred to a Paducah hospital.

Partly Cloudy

Partly cloudy, windy and warm today, high near 70. Increasing cloudiness tonight with chance of showers and possibly a few thundershowers, low in the mid 50s. Mostly cloudy Saturday and Saturday night with showers continuing, high in the low and mid 70s.

No Settlement Reached On Medical Building

By DAVID HILL

Murray Ledger & Times Staff Writer

No agreement was reached Thursday night in an effort to settle a compromise between the Houston-McDevitt Clinic and the Murray-Calloway County Hospital Board.

The local doctors' organization has turned down the latest offer from the hospital board concerning operation of a pharmacy in a proposed medical office building to be built by the board on hospital grounds.

Pete Waldrop, business manager for the clinic, explained the clinic's position this morning. Waldrop, speaking for the doctors' organization, explained that "the clinic is now serving this area with 17 physicians and operates a business office, pharmacy, laboratory, x-ray, and physiotherapy departments. The clinic proposed to give to the hospital its lab, x-ray, and physiotherapy departments in exchange for permission to operate a pharmacy in their leased space.

"The hospital Executive Committee," Waldrop continued, "at a recent meeting with the clinic executive committee, state that all profits derived from any such pharmacy would have to be used not only to defray the expenses of the clinic physicians but for any other physician desiring to rent office space."

Waldrop explained that "The board of directors of the Houston McDevitt Clinic have met since the combined meeting and have reached a unanimous agreement. There are certain aspects of the plan which, for the immediate future, would be of benefit to the clinic but for the long term would lead to the dissolution of group practice as we know it. We would like to emphasize that because of the attraction of group practice, Murray, with few exceptions, has more specialists and generalists per capita, than any town in the state or surrounding area."

The clinic group countered the hospital offer by proposing that the hospital board sell or lease the land to the clinic. Waldrop explained that the clinic group would construct a medical arts building for the clinic facilities, and in addition provide office space on a rental basis for non-clinic physicians who desired the space.

The hospital board, however, voted last night not to sell or lease the land to the clinic, or any other private group.

Chairman Jim Garrison stressed this morning that the door is still open to further negotiations with the clinic and that he hopes the issue can be resolved. He did emphasize, however, that it is his feeling that none of the board members will favor leasing or selling the land to any group.

In other action at the board meeting last night, new hospital board by-laws were adopted, which include a variety of changes, including the method by which members are selected.

A report from the emergency room indicated that the operation is "breaking even" financially, and that everything seems to be running smoothly.

Several items of lab equipment were also acquired by the board at last night's meeting.

Movement To Try And Force Vote On Rescission Of ERA

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Supporters of the move to rescind Kentucky's ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment planned to try to force the issue to a vote in the Kentucky House today, as time began running out.

If approved by the House, the measure could go to the Senate later today.

After close to an hour of parliamentary maneuvering Thursday night, the House adjourned without acting on the question. It was the last day of business at the end of a long legislative day.

Thursday was the last day either house could act on bills. But the House could still consider the measure today, by suspending the rules.

The move to rescind ERA was revived Thursday when — in a surprise move — a House committee amended a Senate bill. That bill would have placed the ERA rescission question on the ballot in the November 1977 election.

As amended, the Senate bill reads like the original House resolution to rescind Kentucky's approval of ERA. That resolution was approved by the House, but failed to get out of a Senate committee.

The Kentucky General Assembly ratified the proposed amendment to the U.S. Constitution during a special session in 1972.

The motion to adjourn Thursday was made by House Majority Leader Bobby Richardson, D-Glasgow, and passed 45-42. It came after three previous motions to adjourn had failed.

Legislators who opposed rescission of ERA attempted to sidetrack the issue by referring to the House rule that prohibits consideration of a bill a second time.

But anti-ERA forces had their own tactics, which involved the suspension of rules. The efforts of both sides failed when the motion to adjourn was approved.

Hearst Jurors Enter Deliberation Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jurors in Patricia Hearst's trial enter deliberations with two conflicting portraits of the newspaper heiress — one by the prosecutor who insists she is a conniving liar, the other by the defender who argues she robbed a bank to save her life.

In final arguments Thursday, U.S. Atty. James L. Browning Jr. repeatedly urged the seven-woman, five-man jury to base their verdict on the evidence. Defense attorney F. Lee Bailey stopped just short of suggesting they ignore it and rely instead on her own testimony.

U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver J. Carter planned to issue final instructions and send the bank robbery case to the jury today. The trial is in its eighth week.

Browning, his voice occasionally rising in an impassioned two-hour address, implored the jury to watch again the film of Miss Hearst robbing the bank, read her underground writings, listen to her strident voice on taped messages and her profanity-laced jailhouse conversation with a friend.

Bailey, in a 45-minute oratory that barely mentioned the evidence, said the trial dealt with "dying or surviving. That is all that Patricia Campbell Hearst thought about."

Miss Hearst, 22, testified that she was a terrified hostage of her Symbionese Liberation Army kidnapers and participated in an April 15, 1974, bank robbery under fear of death. Bailey argued that a guilty verdict would encourage similar kidnappings in the future.

The government contended she was a willing convert to terrorism and

Browning dismissed her defense as "too incredible to be believed."

He recited the major points in her defense, summed it up as if she were saying, "I didn't mean it," and then, leaning forward over a lectern, he said slowly and emphatically, "It's too big a pill to swallow, it just doesn't wash."

The tall, lanky prosecutor, glancing at a prepared text, made only one direct reference to Miss Hearst's Feb. 4, 1974, kidnapping at the hands of the SLA.

"I'm sorry that Patricia Hearst was kidnapped," he said. "I'm sorry anyone was kidnapped ... but can you assume that she was a kidnap victim for the next 19 months?"

"Don't be misled by the smokescreen the defense has raised," he urged the jury. "Judge this case on the merits. Judge this case on the evidence."

Price Index May Reflect Another Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — With food prices steady in December and dipping in January, government economists say the Consumer Price Index for February may continue this good economic news and reflect another decline in food costs.

The Labor Department releases the February figures today.

Food prices have been a big factor in slowing the pace of inflation in recent months. While some nonfood price increases also have eased, government economists express concern about the

Minister And Wife To Speak For Fellowship

Rev. J. T. Parish and his wife, Noretta, will be the speakers for the March meeting of the Aglow Fellowship, to be held Tuesday, March 23 at the Ken-Bar Inn on Highway 641 in Gilbertsville. The luncheon meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m.

This is a regular monthly meeting of this organization, which began in this area just two months ago. It is open to any woman who is interested in meeting with other Christian women of all denominations, and hearing what God is doing in their lives.

The Gilbertsville chapter of the Aglow Fellowship is part of an international fellowship which has over 400 chapters in all parts of the nation. It is not a denomination, nor even sponsored by any denomination, but rather is an outgrowth of what has become known as the Charismatic Movement in the mainline denominational churches.

Rev. Parish is the pastor of the Christian Fellowship Church in Briensburg, where he has been for the past five years. The church is a Charismatic church, and one of the fastest-growing churches in this whole area, he said. Bro. Parish and his wife are both from Baptist backgrounds, and are originally from Madisonville. Both will share their testimonies of what the Lord has done in their lives—from the time of their salvation down to their present years of ministry.

The meeting will begin with luncheon together in the Ken-Bar dining room, with the meeting following, in the Grand Rivers Room. A nursery will be provided, for all pre-school age children, with well-qualified attendants in charge. All mothers are asked to bring sack lunches for their children.

Women from all parts of Western Kentucky have been attending the past meetings, with the attendance growing at each meeting.

A Fellowship is being planned in Paris, Tenn., for the women of that area who have driving to Gilbertsville. This will be a part of the outreach of the Gilbertsville chapter.

Another part of the outreach of the Gilbertsville fellowship is the establishment of seven Bible Study groups which are meeting weekly in homes throughout the area.

Anyone desiring more information about these study groups may inquire at the March meeting of Aglow, or call Mrs. Eddie Garland in Briensburg (527-5381).

Beth Outland, right, president of Murray High School FHA Chapter, bestows honorary membership on Mrs. Dortha Bailey, chapter advisor, at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Murray High Chapter Of FHA Has Banquet

Miss Beth Outland was toastmistress for the seventeenth annual Mother-Daughter Banquet held by the Murray High School Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America on Tuesday, March 16, at 6:30 p.m. in the Murray State University Student Union Ballroom.

The guest speaker was Miss Arrowhanna Blake, a home economics student teacher at Murray High School. Her speech was entitled "What Home Economics Means To Me."

An honorary membership for her outstanding contribution to the chapter was presented by Miss Outland to Mrs. Dortha Bailey, chapter advisor.

Fred Schultz, superintendent of Murray City Schools, gave the invocation. Sheila Foster, first vice-president, welcomed the mothers, and Mrs. Hazel Cunningham responded for the mothers.

Special music was provided by Anne Gregory who played "The Black Key Etude" by Chopin. Miss Gregory and Miss Rhonda Sledg also provided dinner music.

Jan Outland, secretary, and Leslie Homra, second vice-president, conferred degrees to members as follows:

Chapter degrees—Laurie Crass, Sherry Crawford, Teresa Cunningham, Anne Gregory, Melaine Honchul, Delores Honchul, Mary Ann Jones, Terri McCord, Julie Peebles, Danna Shipley, Bobbie Smith, Janet Smith, Belinda Suiter, Jane Ann Turner, and Debbie Wilson.

Junior degrees—Karen Bailey, Angela Camp, Mitzi Cathey, Stephanie Cunningham, Edwina Elkins, Millie Elkins, Keane Gregory, Leah Hill, Amanda Holt, Emily Humphrey, Pam Johnson, Tricia Johnson, Gena Lovett, Jenny Lovins, Dana Mansfield, Carma Miller, Angie Noel, Gaye Orr, Penny Price, Rhonda Sledg, Karen Todd, Lisa Wallin, and Laura Watkins.

Officers and senior members were introduced by Miss Outland along with special guests including Mr. and Mrs. Schultz, G. T. Lilly, Miss Sally Caldwell, and Mrs. Ann Caldwell and Miss Polly Anderson, the latter two being student teachers.

Committee members for the banquet were Vickie Cunningham, Jane Anne Turner, Janet Smith, Delores Honchul, Mitzi Cathey, Laurie Crass, Pam Johnson, Dana Mansfield, Edwina Elkins, Marilyn Howard, Pam Lassiter, Susan Weber, Sheila Foster, and Bobbie Smith.

The officers are Beth Outland, Sheila Foster, Leslie Homra, Jan Outland, Donna Heathcott, Teresa Cunningham, Tressa Brewer, Debbie Wilson, Sherry Crawford, Regina Bumpus, Dana Shipley, Anne Gregory, and Kelly Williams with Mrs. Lucy Lilly and Mrs. Dortha Bailey as advisors.

The decorations were in a bicentennial theme with a red, white, and blue ribbon running the length of the table and an arrangement of red, blue, and white daisies with white baby's breath. Forming a triangle behind the flowers were red, blue, and white candles. Red and blue liberty bells, place cards and programs further carried out the theme.

Mrs. Cooper And Mrs. Owen Lead Program, Sinking Spring Women

The Olga Hampton Group of the Sinking Spring Baptist Women met Monday, March 8, at seven p.m. at the church with Mrs. Maxine Nance, president, presiding. Prayer was led by Mrs. Juanita Collins.

Members voted to change the next meeting to April 12 due to the conflict with the spring revival.

The program on "Freedom To Grow" was led by Mrs. Linda Cooper and Mrs. Lorene Owen, Week of Prayer chairmen. On program were Mesdames Ruth Warren, Kathryn Starks, Hattie Lee Galloway, Betty Lockhart, Frances Paschall, Mary Bell Jones, Juanita Collins, Ora Kuykendall, Mildred Crawford, and Gladys Williamson.

C'mon, kid, Live!

When the eyes flutter open at last, when the breath finally comes easy and regular—only then can the fireman relax. And maybe take a little pride and pleasure from the special gift he's been given.

It's a learned gift, with a big name: mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

And the gift itself is big, too. Because in many cases it brings people literally back from death.

Whenever you wonder "where Red Cross money goes," think of it. Part of your money goes to train people in all walks of life to do what needs to be done when the chips are really down.

Maybe you'll never need to be brought back to life this way.

Then again, maybe you will. Isn't Red Cross a good idea? Belong.

Our Hospital A Definite Asset

A news release put out by the Chicago Sun-Times News Service this week made us realize what an asset the Murray-Calloway County Hospital is to the citizens of this community.

The news release reported the results of a study by the health insurance industry which found, among other things, that the lowest average for a day in the hospital, on a state-by-state basis, was $82.80 in North Dakota. A survey released recently on the local level revealed that the average cost of a day in the Murray-Calloway County Hospital is $77, even lower than the lowest state average in the nation.

The study showed that nationwide, the average stay in a hospital was 7.8 days at a cost of $127.70 or a total of $996 approximately for the stay. The same 7.8 days at the local hospital would total only $600, less than two-thirds the nationwide average.

Anotehr plus for the Murray hospital is the approval last week of 38 additional beds for the local facility. The additional beds, which will be added during a major, two-phase construction project at the hospital, will increase the capacity of the hospital to 178 beds.

The Murray-Calloway County Hospital is a vital part of our community. Not only does it provide much-needed health care, it is also a vital economic factor. We need to point toward continued growth as a regional health center in future years.

There are presently the equivalent of 326 full-time employees at the hospital who draw an annual payroll of $2.4 million. The new addition, according to Stuart Poston, hospital administrator, is expected to add an additional 100 full-time employees to the staff, which will increase the payroll accordingly.

We are proud of our local hospital, its fine employees and salute its administration and board of commissioners for the commendable job they are doing.

Consumer Comment

Complain Yourself!

By Robert F. Stephens
Attorney General of Kentucky

If you want to do something fast—do it yourself!

This applies particularly to effective complaining by consumers. While the staff of the Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection can try to mediate legitimate consumer complaints, they often find that consumers have not taken any action of their own.

Before contacting anyone, make sure your complaint is legitimate and that you have followed the directions concerning the operation and up-keep of the product.

If you decide your complaint is legitimate, immediately contact the person or company that sold you the product. Don't delay in registering your complaint!

Take the purchase receipt, warranty and other documents to the business where you bought the product. State your complaint calmly and concisely to the salesman or company representative. If he or she cannot act on your problem, ask to speak to the person highest in authority. Don't be put off by "buckpassing" techniques.

If you do not obtain a satisfactory response from the store owner or manager, send a written complaint to the manufacturer. The address of the home or regional division office is usually included in the warranty or other materials accompanying the product. If you can't find the address, check with the dealer or the public library.

When you complain by mail, be sure to include the brand name, year, model number, serial number, size, color and other details which identify the product. State your problem in detail and don't forget to include your name and address, along with the name and address of the place where you purchased the product. If you send any documents, send a clear and readable copy. Do not send the original.

Be sure to keep copies of all correspondence and documents you send to the company. If you return the merchandise, be sure to insure it, if it is returned by mail or other delivery service.

When you complain to the dealer or to the manufacturer, you are letting them know that their goods or services are not entirely reliable and worthwhile. Valid complaints will often be resolved by this kind of customer approach to the company, and a reputable business will welcome the opportunity to remedy the problem and preserve the customers' confidence. Effective and responsible complaining can also prevent other consumers from experiencing the same problem.

If you have tried to resolve your complaint on your own, but feel that the company response is inadequate or unsatisfactory, then you may want to contact the Attorney General's Office. If you do, mail a copy of all the materials you accumulated while trying to resolve the problem with the business, including the company's response to your inquiry.

The Consumer Protection Division will take it from there and try to assist both parties in reaching a settlement of the complaint.

If you have a consumer complaint, contact the Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection, Room 34, the Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

About Mailing Lists —New Information

By Virginia Knauer

About four years ago I wrote about how to get your name off mailing lists. Some readers clipped and saved that column and used the information when they had complaints about unwanted mail.

Unfortunately, some of these consumers did not get the service they wanted because of outdated information in my old column.

So — if your mailbox is filled with so-called "junk-mail" that you have never asked for and do not want, you should ask the Direct Mail-Marketing Association (DMMA) and the Postal Service (PS) for help.

DMMA represents 2800 companies that send advertisements to persons on their mailing lists. These companies are responsible for about 65 per cent of the total direct mail advertising done in the United States.

To remove your name from these lists, ask DMMA for a Name-Removal Application. Write to Mail Preference Service, Direct Mail-Marketing Association Inc., 6 East 43rd St., New York, N. Y. 10017. Mail the completed

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Friday, March 19, the 79th day of 1976. There are 287 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1920, the U.S. Senate rejected the Versailles Treaty providing for a League of Nations. The action set the tone for a decade of U.S. isolationist policy.

On this date —
In 1628, the English founded the Massachusetts Colony.

In 1711, Russia and Turkey declared war against each other.

In 1913, the first territorial legislature of Alaska granted suffrage to women.

In 1917, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld a law reducing the working day of all railroad employees to eight hours.

In 1942, during World War II, American men between the ages of 45 and 64 were ordered to register for non-military duty.

In 1962, relative calm returned to Algeria after a ceasefire ended seven years of warfare between the French and Algerian nationalists.

Ten years ago: The United States and the Soviet Union signed a two-year cultural exchange agreement.

Five years ago: An avalanche touched off by an earthquake buried a mining camp in the Andes in Peru, killing at least 400 people.

One year ago: The U.S. Supreme Court ruled that widowers with children were entitled to the same Social Security benefits as widows.

Today's birthdays: Writer Philip Roth is 43. Mrs. Charles Robb — the former Lynda Bird Johnson — is 32.

Thought for today: Woe unto them that are tired of everything, for everything will certainly be tired of them — G.K. Chesterton, English writer, 1874-1936.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago, after the British evacuation of Boston, General George Washington ordered his soldiers to stay out of the city unless on official missions because of a smallpox epidemic.

though the car is not worth very much, I'm afraid the fact that he owns a car may affect his SSI benefits. Is this true?—R.M.L.

Answer: A person may receive SSI and still own an automobile as long as the value of the car does not exceed $1,200 or if the car is used to transport him for medical treatments.

Heartline: I am confused when it comes to buying vitamins. Is there a difference in vitamins since there are so many different prices.

Answer: The difference is in the price you pay, depending upon whether you purchase your vitamins in a discount store or a full price retail store. Your basic vitamins are made by only a few manufacturers. All vitamin tablet manufacturers buy these basic vitamins from the same sources.

Vitamins do not come in different grades. If you buy several different brands of vitamins, each containing 5,000 units of vitamin A, 1,000 units of vitamin D, 5 mgm of vitamin C, 5 mgm of thiamine chloride (B1), 5 mgm of riboflavin (B2), 5 mgm of pyridoxin (B6), 100 mgm of niacinamide and 5 mgm of cyanocobalamin (B12), you can count on the fact that you are getting the same thing in each bottle.

Let's Stay Well

Type B. Hepatitis and Dentists

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

Type B (serum) hepatitis is a risk not only for physicians but also for dentists and dental assistants who work with infected cases.

Those dentists with frequent exposure to blood in their practice have the greatest danger of contracting this form of hepatitis. Oral surgeons have their hands exposed to blood and blood-saliva mixtures in their patients' mouths. Likewise, dentists who perform periodontic work are more likely to contract hepatitis from their patients. The virus may enter in small breaks in the dentist's skin or via an accidental puncture wound.

Another danger to the dentists and their assistants is the oral or respiratory transmission of the virus if it is present in a patient's saliva. Sneezing or coughing may be a possible means of transmitting the disease. The virus may be transferred by contaminated instruments if special care is not taken in their sterilization after use on an infected patient.

If a patient known to have hepatitis B is in need of dental care, it should be postponed until the patient has recovered and is not infectious. In case of a painful dental emergency, work to give relief often must be done. The dentist should wear gloves and a mask, taking care to avoid infection.

If contact is made with a person with hepatitis B and the disease is transmitted, the incubation period often varies from one to six months before symptoms appear, with most cases developing in two to three months. However, the infected person may have transmitted the disease even before the symptoms appear and after they are gone.

A person who has hepatitis should confer with his or her physician before having dental work and should advise the dentist of the disease. Since hepatitis B is a disabling, potentially dangerous infection for which no effective medicine is available, prevention of the illness offers the best protection.

Q. Mrs. E.V. expresses worry about her pregnant daughter, who has developed a toxic goiter and who has been advised to have surgical removal of the goiter. She wonders if medicines are not available to use so that surgery will not be needed.

A. Surgery is generally considered safer for toxic goiters during pregnancy. While drugs are available to control the goiter, their safe use during pregnancy has not been established. I suggest that your daughter follow the advice of her physician. If she needs further reassurance about the preference of surgery, she should tell her physician that she desires a consultation with another physician on this problem.

Q. Mr. W.H. asks whether it is better to have your blood pressure taken while sitting up or lying down.

A. The difference in blood pressure readings in the sitting or recumbent position is not statistically significant if the person has rested prior to taking the blood pressure. As a matter of convenience, blood pressure is usually taken in the sitting position.

The Consequences of Hypocrisy Matthew 23:27-33

Christ scathingly denounced hypocrisy on various occasions. What is hypocrisy? It is pretending to be something that one is not. It is a profession which lacks a possession. Hypocrisy is always extremely obnoxious to Christ, no matter in whose life it may be found. Discerning the hardness and the impotence of the hearts of the scribes and Pharisees, Christ sternly denounced their hypocrisy and pronounced their condemnation in no uncertain terms, but at the same time with the sternness of a holy and perfect love.

These hypocrites committed the grossest sins under the cloak of religion. Pretending to have a great interest in the poor and a genuine friendship for the sorrowful and distressed people who had lost their loved ones by death, those despicable scoundrels induced widows, and those without business experience, to commit the management of their property and financial matters to them as executors and then defrauded them. After these covetous and dishonest hypocrites obtained the money from their various victims under false pretenses, they proceeded to make long prayers for the purpose of trying to avert suspicion, but they failed in their attempt. Oh, the length to which some people will go for the sake of filthy lucre! But, none should ever forget that there will be a day of reckoning.

Christ pronounced a series of mournful woes on the hypocritical scribes and Pharisees, whom he accused of spiritual blindness and moral stupidity, and whom he knew had developed a rationalized system of lying which was notorious and abominable. It is noteworthy that Christ's most bitter denunciations were addressed to those whose outward lives were respectable and whose religious professions were often the loudest. The punctilious Pharisees were careful to tithe every edible product, but they were not so scrupulous about their ethical and moral duties. Christ made it plain that neither the minute nor the weighty matters are to be neglected. Being very careful in small matters and extremely lax in the weighty ones is ridiculous. It is folly to insist on the outside of the platter and cup being clean, but caring not that their contents are defiled by dishonesty and extortion. The heart must be cleansed before the conduct can be exemplary. An attempt to display outward cleanliness while harboring impurity within is highly displeasing to our Lord.

In accents of great compassion and genuine pity, our blessed Lord proclaimed his yearning for the people in Jerusalem. Not only had they stoned the prophets, slain many others whom God had sent to them with his message, but now they were about to put to death the Son of God. Through the centuries with tremendous patience and great love God had sought to win and save the people from their sins, but most of them rejected the salvation which was offered to them.

Thinking of their many past offenses and their numerous refusals of God's mercies, Christ pictured the people in Jerusalem as a brood of chickens which refused to be gathered under the wings of the hen. As the hen wanted to shelter her chicks under her wings, even so, and to a far greater degree, did Christ want to gather the people of Jerusalem under the protecting wings of his love, but they were not willing to be gathered.

Because of their attitude toward Christ and their rejection of him, our Lord warned them that their house would be left unto them desolate. Even though he warned them of their impending punishment, they little dreamed of such a dire calamity as the destruction of their beloved city within forty years, but such actually took place under Titus in 70 A. D. Because of their rejection of Christ they became the victims of enslavement and sorrow in due time.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR SATURDAY,
MARCH 20, 1976

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Business and personal matters may conflict. In a possibly irritated mood, your judgment may be clouded. Don't commit yourself to any new undertaking.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21)

Stress your inborn prudence and perceptiveness. Constructive interests favored. Avoid doubts and fears. You should have a bright and happy day.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21)

Avoid a tendency to try and extract more out of a current situation than feasible. Some excellent NEW opportunities headed your way next week.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23)

You may have to revise some plans. Others may assist somewhat but, in general, you must draft your own alterations. Be prepared for the unexpected.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Some lack of harmony, differences of opinion indicated. Proceed with prudence, forethought. Evaluate all viewpoints carefully.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

More than usual activity indicated in certain area. Bring forth the best in your repertoire and exploit it to the hilt. Don't waste time on the inconsequential.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

Do not make plans based on a false promise or that which you are building will come tumbling down. Emphasize your innate foresightedness.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Do not answer questions or make commitments if you are unsure of your own stand or abilities. There's a tendency to be overoptimistic now.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

You could mastermind a most worthwhile activity that would benefit many, if you look for the opportunity and grasp it immediately.

YOU BORN TODAY are a Pisces-Aries cusp (one born at the change of Signs) and, as such, are endowed with great versatility, inventiveness and an outgoing personality. You are industrious, idealistic in your ambitions, sympathetic to the underprivileged and extremely capable in emergencies.

Bill To Extend Teachers' Right Of Bargain Seem Dead

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The last hope of schoolteachers for a law forcing local school boards to bargain with them seems dead in the waning days of the 1976 legislature.

The House Rules Committee Wednesday sent a Senate Bill 200 back to the House Education Committee.

There probably won't be another education committee meeting. The Rules Committee could have sent the measure to the floor.

The Kentucky Education Association, though not satisfied with the watered down version of professional negotiations, were willing to accept a foot in the door for meaningful talks with administrators.

But the Kentucky Association of School Boards remained adamant in its opposition, even to the emasculated version.

The original bill by Sen. William Quinlan, D-Louisville, would have been much stronger, but had no chance of emerging from committee onto the Senate floor.

However, the weakened version got out and was passed and the KEA expressed hope the House would go along and Gov. Julian Carroll would sign the bill.

However, there was powerful opposition from other sources, too, such as the state Chamber of Commerce which wants no collective bargaining proposals whatever.

A bill providing for collective bargaining for all public employees was killed weeks ago.

Then the KEA saw the handwriting on the wall for the collective bargaining measure. It concentrated on the PN measure.

The PN bill's advocates were spreading blame for its defeat, even accusing House Speaker William Kenton, D-Lexington, of a role.

But Kenton declined to take the credit.

"I'm not very big on funerals," he commented.

PN bills have been in the Kentucky legislature for the past eight years.

Once, in 1974, a version got through the entire assembly. But then Gov. Wendell Ford vetoed it.

SB 200 would have permitted teachers to negotiate with school boards on issues such as salaries and working conditions.

However, there was no binding arbitration provided as in the tough earlier bill. Instead, mediation was settled for in the compromise measure which now appears killed.

Study Linking Coffee To Heart Attack Discounted

BOSTON (AP) — A four-year-old study that linked coffee-drinking with heart attacks has been discounted by a new one.

In the study published today in the New England Journal of Medicine, a team of Boston doctors says, "The risks, if any ..., appear small."

Four years ago, the Boston Collaborative Drug Surveillance Program at Boston University said the risk of acute myocardial infarction — the heart damage that results from a blocked artery — was increased 60 per cent for those who drank one to five cups of coffee each day and 120 per cent for those who drank more than six cups.

The National Coffee Association says that during last winter the average American drank 2.2 cups of coffee per day.

Without mentioning a particular study, the latest report said earlier researchers may have failed to take into consideration other reasons for the patients' heart trouble, such as smoking.

The new study was directed by Dr. Charles H. Hennekens of Boston City Hospital.

It reviewed the habits of 649 men in Florida between the ages of 30 and 70 who died of coronary heart disease. The doctors took into consideration 22 factors that might be associated with heart trouble.

The variables most often associated with death from heart disease, they found, were a history of heart damage resulting from blockage of an artery, a history of diabetes, cigarette smoking, a history of angina, a history of congestive heart failure, physical activity, weight and a history of high blood pressure.

Even coffee additives — milk, cream and artificial frequently associated with heart attack than coffee-drinking.

Tiant Refuses To Report To Sox, Wants Big Pay Raise

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer

For the time being, Marvin Miller stopped pitching and John Gaherin stopped catching. Instead, most of the 24 major league baseball teams opened their camps and equipment trunks Thursday and rolled out the bats, balls, gloves and other necessary paraphernalia as spring training officially began.

But while the players unlimbered winter-idled muscles in an attempt to make up for some of the 2½ weeks of training they missed in the lingering labor hassle, there were a number of recalcitrants, led by veteran pitcher Luis Tiant of the Boston Red Sox.

Some 25 members of the American League champions participated in a brisk 2½-hour workout and Manager Darrell Johnson was so delighted with the proceedings it was almost as though the camps had never been locked.

"Rick Wise, Jim Burton and Reggie Cleveland each pitched 15 minutes of batting practice," Johnson enthused. "Ordinarily they wouldn't be able to do that until in camp 12 or 13 days, so actually they're about two weeks ahead."

Never before had 2½ weeks of nothing doing been wiped out so quickly.

However, Tiant remained at his Massachusetts home and said he wouldn't head south until the Red Sox extend his contract. The club's ace hurler, who won 18 games during the regular season, one in the playoffs and two more in the World Series, has one season remaining on a two-year, $100,000-a-year pact.

"I wanted a three-year contract last year, but they told me the Red Sox never give contracts longer than two years. Now they have given them and I want one."

Wise and Bill Lee have signed for three years, Carl Yastrzemski is believed working on a three-year contract and Fred Lynn, Carlton Fisk and Rick Burleson reportedly have been offered long-term pacts.

A former Bostonian, outfielder Juan Beniquez, was missing from the Texas Rangers' camp. Beniquez was believed to be somewhere in his native Puerto Rico.

It didn't take long for the California Angels to settle their third-base situation. Manager Dick Williams said Dave Chalk would continue to play the position with newly acquired Bill Melton "working out a bit at third, a bit at first and a lot in the batting cage."

Not all pitchers were as eager as the Red Sox.

"I'm not going to be ready to throw in any kind of game for 10 to 12 days," said Oakland relief ace Rollie Fingers. "It's going to take four or five weeks for me to get in shape to throw three innings."

While the players were working out, the owners' player relations committee was scheduled to meet today in New York to reassess its position.

There's been no more news lately about the "skid row slasher" but Jack The Ripper is back on the scene.

Jack The Ripper is Jack Perconte, a senior second baseman for the Murray State Thoroughbreds. All Jack The Ripper did Thursday afternoon was to rip three hits, including a tie-breaking single in the bottom of the ninth, as Murray State posted a 4-3 win over highly-regarded Vanderbilt.

It was the first game of the season for the 'Breds and a large crowd was on hand to watch. Vandy had already played 11 games but you never would have guessed it was the season opener for the 'Breds, unless you knew better.

Junior southpaw Mike Roberts of Evansville, a newcomer to the team, hurled the first six innings for the 'Breds and left the game trailing 3-2.

Then in the bottom of the eighth inning, Murray State's designated hitter, Terry Brown, reached on a two-base error after one man was out. Utility infielder Al Luigs of Paducah was sent in to run

BASKETBALL
WILMINGTON, Ohio — John Bryant resigned as head basketball coach at Wilmington College.

Perconte's Ninth-Inning Hit Lifts 'Breds Past Vanderbilt and with two out, Luigs was still on second base.

But leftfielder Marvin "Cowboy" Kiel slapped a single up the middle and Roberts was off the ropes as Murray tied the game at 3-3.

Sophomore Mark Wezet of Evansville, a fireballing righthander who sat out last season because of an injury, hurled three innings for Murray and held Vandy scoreless.

And now it's time for Jack

The Ripper. With two hits and a RBI already under his belt, Perconte came up in the bottom of the ninth with two on and nobody out.

Shortstop Stan Geisler led off the ninth by getting hit by a pitch then centerfielder David Hughes, a Murray High graduate who already had two hits in the game, beat out an infield hit for his third safety and that put runners on at first and second for Perconte.

Perconte promptly slammed a single into left center and the 'Breds had the 4-3 win.

Roberts gave up two earned runs in his six-inning stint while giving up seven hits, fanning five and walking one. Wezet, who got the win, hurled three innings and gave up two hits while striking out two and issuing one pass.

Righthander Bob Latimer went the distance for Vandy and gave up three earned runs on eight hits while fanning six and walking three.

Murray scored a lone run in the bottom of the first. With two out, John Siemanowski and Don Walker drew walks then Brown singled up the middle.

In the top of the fourth, Vandy posted two runs as a throwing error by Geisler allowed both to score. In the fifth, after Hughes had led off with a single, Perconte doubled to tie the game at 2-2.

Vandy went ahead by putting a couple of hits together the sixth but Murray tied it in the eighth and of course, Perconte won it in the ninth. Hughes and Perconte each had three hits for the 'Breds while Brown and Kiel added a hit apiece.

Murray will play Southwest Missouri and Iowa State today at Reagan Field. Then on Saturday, the 'Breds will play the same two clubs before playing a 1 p.m. twinbill Sunday against Iowa State.

Kentucky And UNC-Charlotte Meet Sunday For NIT Crown

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — They played "Beat The Clock" at Madison Square Garden — and Kentucky and North Carolina-Charlotte did just that.

Those college basketball teams advanced to the finals of the 39th National Invitation Tournament with two incredible finishes in Thursday night's semifinals.

Kentucky twice lost big leads and had all but lost the first game before Larry Johnson's dramatic field goal at the buzzer provided a tingling 79-78 victory over Providence.

North Carolina-Charlotte needed a basket by Melvin Watkins with 30 seconds remaining to stop North Carolina State 80-79 in an intense battle of intrastate rivals.

That set the stage for Sunday's championship game between two teams that did not figure to reach the finals.

"This is a mountaintop experience," said North Carolina-Charlotte Coach Lee Rose, whose 49ers clearly are the Cinderella team of this week-long tourney.

Before whipping North Carolina State, the unheralded 49ers scored upset victories over the University of San Francisco and Oregon in their first visit to the NIT.

"The game boiled down to a tip-in," said a deeply disappointed Norm Sloan, the North Carolina State coach. "If one of them went in, we would have won."

Sloan's reference was to the frantic finish after Watkins had put North Carolina-Charlotte into the lead with his dramatic shot. North Carolina State had a crack at winning the game at the end, but missed several shots inside. The ball hung on the basket for a second or two, then spilled off as the final buzzer went off.

"I don't see how the ball didn't go in," said Rose, who appeared to have someone unearthly on his side in the last seconds.

"We didn't have a last-second shot player in there," Sloan offered, referring to the fact that star forward Kenny Carr had fouled out earlier.

"As it was, I'm pleased we stayed with them like we did."

The victory was the first for UNC-Charlotte over an Atlantic Coast Conference team and obviously gave the 49ers' basketball program a shot in the arm. But it may provide future scheduling difficulties for the upstart 49ers who are attempting to upgrade themselves in the shadow of the ACC.

"They're going to have a harder time getting games with Atlantic Coast Conference teams now," said Sloan.

The crowd of 11,444 really got its money's worth. The fans were still limp from the first game when Johnson raced down the court at breakneck speed and laid in a spectacular shot as time ran out. The Wildcats lost leads of 18 points in the first half and 11 in the second, then pulled it out after the Friars had gone ahead 78-77 with seven seconds remaining.

"Johnson was going 100 miles an hour for the basket," said Providence Coach Dave Gavitt. "We just couldn't stop him."

Chatham Shatters Record In Triple Jump, Jacobs Stars

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor
What goes soaring through the air on windy, March days? If you are thinking about kites, just skip it and go fly one. Try Patmore Chatham.

With no strings attached, Chatham went soaring through the air Thursday afternoon in Stewart Stadium as the Murray State track team opened the outdoor season with a 78-67 dual meet win over Toledo University.

Chatham, a junior from Ottos, Antigua, didn't break a school record. Break isn't a fair word to describe what Chatham did in the triple jump. Let's just say he murdered the school record.

The old triple jump record of 49-2 1/4 was set last year by Kevin Caines, a teammate of Chatham. Chatham went 51-3 3/4 Thursday and by doing so, puts himself in a position to become one of the future top triple jumpers in the nation.

Meanwhile, Caines wasn't having a bad day as he went 49-0 and settled for second. The two also kept their same positions in the long jump where Chatham won with a 24-4 1/2 and Caines was second, just one-quarter inch behind.

Besides those two events, Murray did nothing else to speak of in field events. Caines went 6-0 for a second in the high jump while Norman deCausin of Owensboro was second with 14-2 in the pole vault.

Toledo swept all three places in the discus, shot put and javelin competition.

One of the most interesting things about the day was the fact the D.C. Striders were on hand. Coaching the Striders was a former standout Murray State sprinter, Fred Sowerby.

Sowerby and senior Racer sprinter Cuthbert Jacobs clowned all afternoon about which was the faster. Sowerby's bread and butter is the 440-yard dash, where he currently reigns as the AAU champion.

Jacobs elected to run in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Sowerby went ahead and ran the 440 and simply crushed the field as he ran a 46.9, a course record, in a very gusty wind which had as much negative effect on Sowerby's time as it did positive.

Since Sowerby was running "open", his first place finish did not count and senior sprinter Lester Flax, who ran a 48.6, won first. Freshman Norman Simms of Washington, D.C., who Sowerby helped Racer Coach Bill Cornell recruit, was second in 49.5.

Then came the 220-yard dash. Jacobs, behind slightly out of the blocks, came off the curve and down the straightaway to "smoke" Sowerby.

And just as he crossed the line, Jacobs pointed at Sowerby and laughed in a friendly display of fun.

Jacobs was clocked in 21.6 while Stanford "Little Joe" Patrick was second in 22.2 and Jimmy Jackson of the Racers third in 23.0. Sowerby had a 21.7.

Jacobs was a double winner on the day. He held off a strong challenge in the 100-yard dash from teammate

Late For Honor

MEQUON, Wis. (AP) — Peter Mueller, who was fast enough to win the Gold Medal in the 1,000 meter speed skating event at the Olympics, was too slow traveling home from Europe to arrive on time for gathering held in his honor by his hometown Thursday night.

But the 21-year-old was greeted by 450 people when he arrived a few minutes late at the "Peter Mueller Day" event organized by officials of this Milwaukee suburb.

"I never expected this many people. It's just great," said Mueller, who is used to having his sport virtually ignored in the United States.

Mueller, who was tired after about 30 hours of travel, still took the time to sign numerous autographs for youngsters.

BASEBALL

BLUFFTON, Ohio — Homer Shadle, a coach at Findlay College for 11 years, was named head baseball coach at Bluffton College.

Patrick. Both finished in 9.4. For Patrick, who is barely five-foot tall, it was a personal best. Patrick could possibly be the fastest human in the world if he were 5-8.

The first event on the day was the 440-yard relay in which Murray won with an outstanding 41.5. Running legs were Patrick, Jacobs, Simms and the do-everything Chatham.

The other relay was the last one held on the day, the mile-relay in which Murray won with a 3:17.5. Dennis Mabbitt opened with a 51.5 quarter, Simms had a 48.5, Flax a 50.0 and Jacobs didn't even break a sweat in coasting to a 48.7 anchor.

In the hurdling events, Tom

Potter recorded a 15.2 for second in the 120-high hurdles while in the 440-intermediates, Potter was second in 57.7 and Brent Laird third in 59.5.

In the distance races, Tom Mracek lunged at the line but was nipped out of first place as he settled for second in the 880 with a 1:57.1, the same as the winning time.

Sophomore Englishman Martyn Brewer won the mile in 4:17.9, a time that would have been much lower had it not been for the strong wind.

In the three-mile run, sophomore Englishman Brian Rutter posted an outstanding time of 14:04.9 while freshman Englishman Ralph Cheek posted a second-place time of 14:19.7.

The grueling early season will continue Saturday when the Racers go to Southeast Missouri for a dual meet. Then Monday, Murray will host Eastern Illinois and Lincoln Land Junior College. Field events will begin at 3 p.m. Monday with track events to begin at 3:30 p.m. There is no admission to the meet.

Hoosier-Warrior Clash To Come Early

By HOWARD SMITH
AP Sports Writer

Indiana and Marquette have scrambled into college basketball's heavyweight championship 10 days too early.

The Hoosiers, unbeaten and ranked No. 1, outfoiled Alabama 74-69 and the Warriors, once-beaten and ranked No. 2, struggled past Western Michigan 62-57 in the Midwest regional of the NCAA Tournament Thursday night at Baton Rouge, La. That puts college basketball's two top-rated clubs in the regional finals Saturday. The survivor goes into the final four and the loser goes nowhere, a victim of the draw.

Neither coach was overly impressed with his team's showing.

"Tough, wasn't it?" asked Indiana's Bobby Knight after his club ran its season record to 29-0 with the help of Scott May's clutch basket with 2:01 remaining. "If he doesn't hit the basket and put us ahead, we're in a very difficult position."

"Marquette never looks good," grumbled Warriors' Coach Al McGuire after baskets by Butch Lee, Jerome Whitehead and Bo Ellis finally turned back stubborn Western Michigan.

While Indiana and Marquette struggled to victory, the lineups for Saturday's other three regional finals were completed.

—UCLA, 25-4, goes against Arizona, 24-8, in the West at Los Angeles. The Bruins beat Pepperdine 70-61 and Arizona stunned No. 3 Nevada-Las Vegas 114-109 in overtime.

—Rutgers, 30-0, faces VMI, 22-9, in the East at Greensboro, N.C. Rutgers trimmed Connecticut 93-79 and VMI outlasted DePaul 71-66 in overtime.

—Missouri, 26-4, meets Michigan, 23-6, at Louisville.

Ky. Missouri defeated Texas Tech 86-75 and Michigan overcame Notre Dame 80-76.

Only eight teams remain of the 32 that set out after the NCAA crown last week. After Saturday's games, the final four will head for Philadelphia where the semifinals will be held a week from Saturday and the championship game Monday night, March 29.

But some observers think the title will be decided this Saturday in Baton Rouge when mighty Indiana and almost-as-mighty Marquette collide. Both will be hoping for better showings than they made Thursday night.

Indiana fought off a strong Alabama team with the help of May's clutch bucket and two free throws apiece by Tom Abernethy and Bob Wilkerson down the stretch. The tenacious Hoosier defense held the Crimson Tide scoreless over the final 3:57 of the game and limited highly-regarded Alabama center Leon Douglas to 12 points.

May finished with 25 points and center Kent Benson added 15 despite sitting out much of the second half with four fouls.

Western Michigan led Marquette 51-50 with 7:15 left before Lee, Whitehead and Ellis hit consecutive baskets to put the Warriors ahead for good. Marquette froze the ball over the final two minutes to assure their 23rd straight triumph and 27th in 28 decisions this season.

Lee led the balanced attack with 16 points. Tom Cutter netted 21 for the Broncos.

In the West, No. 5 UCLA, the defending champion and winner of 10 of the last 12 NCAA crowns, beat 20th-ranked Pepperdine behind Marques Johnson's 18 points and Richard Washington's 16.

UCLA led by just one at 50-49 midway through the second half but ran off a 20-8 spree to insure victory.

Marcos Leite and Dennis Johnson had 16 points each for Pepperdine, 22-6.

Junior guard Herman Harris engineered 15th-ranked Arizona's triumph over Nevada-Las Vegas. Harris scored 16 of the Wildcats' final 27 points in regulation, including the tying foul shot with 14 seconds left, and then added four free throws in the overtime. Harris had 31 points for the game. "Arizona deserves all the credit in the world," said dejected Las Vegas Coach Jerry Tarkanian. "They played a great game. Our kids worked hard for so long, it's a shame to see it all end now."

In the East, No. 4 Rutgers ran off nine straight points early in the second half, pressured Connecticut into several turnovers and won going away. Freshman Abdel Anderson came off the bench to score 19 points and pull down 11 rebounds, and Mike Dabney and Ed Jordan added 18 points each for the Scarlet Knights. VMI, the dark horse among the eight remaining teams, blew an 11-point lead in regulation time before subduing DePaul in overtime. Will Bynum scored 22 points and Ron Carter had 21 for the Keydets while Ron Norwood had 23 for the Blue Demons.

There were 57 personal fouls called in the game and DePaul lost five players on fouls.

Sam Smith had 26 points for the Rebels who wound up 29-2. In the Midwest, Willie Smith pumped in 30 points, mostly on long-range jump shots, to carry 14th-ranked Missouri past 16th-ranked Texas Tech.

Ray Floyd's New Lifestyle Helped Turn Career Around

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Ray Floyd, once one of pro golf's most flamboyant, swinging bachelors, has turned his life-style around.

And with it, he's turned his golf game around.

"I was a pretty haphazard guy," Floyd recalled Thursday after a solid, four-under-par 68 provided him with a tie for the lead in the first round of the $175,000 Jacksonville Open Golf Tournament.

"I was making a lot of money, at least enough to live pretty good. If I played bad, so what? There was always next week."

"I really didn't even much like playing golf. It was just a way to make a living, a way to get from town to town, a way to get from week to week. I really didn't care about anything. It was just a way to go."

And Floyd made a very good living — and lived it high — with his happy-go-lucky attitude. He reached the peak in 1969 when he won the PGA national championship, two other tournaments and more than $100,000. Then it stopped. Nothing happened. His natural talent kept him going, but nothing important happened. He didn't win again for six years.

The turning point came in this tournament three years ago.

"I shot a bad score in the first round and I withdrew," he recalled. "That's not a very professional thing to do, but I did it."

"And then I sat down and had a long talk with my wife. I'd only been married about four months at the time. We talked about a lot of things, a lot of mental things. I guess you could call it my awakening."

"It was the turn-around of my career."

"My wife (Maria) made me wake up. She made me see that I'd been lax. I'd been just waiting for my game to come back. She made me see I had to work to make it come back, that you have to work for anything you want."

So Floyd went to work. It paid off with a solid, $100,000 season in 1974. He broke through as a winner again in 1975. And, in only four events this season, he's knocking on the door again.

He shared the top spot in a slow-starting field with Lanny Wadkins, trying to break a two year slump, and young Danny Edwards, in only his second full season on the tour.

The group at 69, three under par on the 7,143-yard, lake-dotted, pine-studded Deerwood Club course, included gangling, 6-foot-5 Peter Oosterhuis of England, Nate Starks, Mike Hill, Barney Thompson and Buddy Allin.

Ben Crenshaw, already a two-time winner this year, and Mark Hayes, the young man who has made unsuccessful title challenges in the last three tournaments, headed a big group at 70.

Sedalia Girls Advance In State Tourney Play

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP) — Quarter-final action in the State Girls' High School Basketball Tournament begins today at Eastern Kentucky University's Alumni Coliseum.

Mason County faces Jenkins at 1 p.m. Est. . . Covington Holy Cross takes on Louisville Butler at 2:30. West Hardin meets Louisville Sacred Heart at 7:30 and Sedalia plays Russell at 9 p.m.

Sedalia, led by Belinda Davidson with 26 points, roared to an early lead and held off an Allen Co. charge in the second half to take a 66-61 victory in a first-round game Thursday night.

Allen Co.'s Sue Smith also finished with 26 points to lead her team.

Russell advanced with a 54-53 victory over Clay Co. The larger Clay Co. players took a 33-24 halftime lead but Russell did some hard second-half charging and Regina Carroll hit two baskets in the final half minute for the win, finishing with a game-high 22 points.

In afternoon games Thursday, Roberta Dever hit 18 points to lead West Hardin to a 46-43 victory over Lexington Bryan Station and Carla Amlung had 16 points to power Louisville Sacred Heart to a 52-51 victory over Trimble County.

WITNESSES FOR GOD

What does it mean to witness for God? Certainly it means to tell others about Christ—to teach in your Sunday School, and participate in worship service. However, our most effective witness is the example our lives provide for others. Our honesty, our personal standards of morality, and our kindness to our fellow man—all these things flow from our belief in God. Often others are turned away from God because those who profess to follow Him do not demonstrate that belief by the example of their own lives.

Ask yourself, is my life a witness to my belief in God? Are my standards a testament to my faith? If your answer is no, begin today to live your life so that others may be able to call you a witness for God.

Wife's Reformed Smoking is Choking Guests

DEAR ABBY: When my wife asked me what I wanted for Christmas, I said, "You'd never give it to me, so forget it." She nagged me until I finally told her that I wanted a wife who didn't smoke.

She thought for a minute, then put out her cigarette and asked, "How long do I have to quit for?"

"Forever," I replied. "But if you quit for a year, I'll be satisfied." (She was a three-pack-a-day smoker.)

Well, she hasn't had a cigarette since, and I'm really happy because I know she's better off. But now she's giving everybody who smokes a hard time.

She's put all our ashtrays away, and if we have guests over who start to smoke, she says, "If you MUST smoke, please go outside!"

When we're out and people ask her if she minds if they smoke, she says, "Yes. I'm allergic."

I'm glad she quit smoking, but how can I get her not to make such a big deal out of it?

LONG-SUFFERING HUSBAND

DEAR SUFFERING: Anyone who can quit cold turkey after having been a three-pack-a-day smoker deserves a hand. But she shouldn't give the back of her hand to others who have yet to recognize the hazards of their habit—or are unable (or unwilling) to give it up.

DEAR ABBY: The hostess who was upset by early arrivals is making mountains out of molehills. Some folks are compulsive early arrivers. I know. I'm married to one. If I could sell the time I've spent sitting around in airports because my wife didn't want to "miss the plane," I'd have a fortune.

But the solution to early arrivals for a party is simple: Point them toward the magazine rack or give them today's newspaper. Oh, and assign them the task of greeting other early arrivals. That way you very neatly get the whole problem off your hands.

UNRUFFLED BY EARLY BIRDS

DEAR UN: Thanks for making molehills out of mountains.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a chance to win an all-expenses-paid trip with me to Bermuda.

My problem: We would be flying to Florida, which I don't mind, then we'd go to Bermuda by boat through the Bermuda Triangle.

I have heard that planes and ships have been lost and never heard from again after going through the Bermuda Triangle.

If this is true, I am afraid to go because I have two children and I don't want to take a chance.

What is your advice?

SCARED UP NORTH

DEAR SCARED: The captain and crew want to live as much as you do, dear, and if there were any possibility of danger, they wouldn't take that route. If your husband wins the trip, go. Bon voyage!

Record Review

by J. D. Lancaster

Are BTO And Grand Funk Doomed On The Charts?

Are Grand Funk Railroad and Bachman-Turner Overdrive doomed on the charts? The answer to this question could be yes due to the poor showings both have made on national record charts—especially the old hard rock stand-by group, Grand Funk Railroad.

Does this mean hard rock music is on its way out? It may. However, with such groups as Kiss, Nazareth, Aerosmith, Lynrd Skynyrd, Foghat and Kansas doing well on the charts hard rock is still going strong despite competition from the rise of country rock and disco music.

There are some pretty good cuts on Bachman-Turner Overdrive's "Head On" as well as on Grand Funk Railroad's "Born to Die." We shall also look at some of the sorry cuts on these albums.

"Head On" Bachman-Turner Overdrive did well with their previous four albums but they could be running out of steam on their latest album, "Head On." It may be that their music may have become monotonous.

"It's Over" is excellent due to drummer Rob Bachman's great performance on the drums. "Average Man" has a good vocal as well as an echo effect on vocal.

The heavy guitar sound comes on strong in variation on "Wild Spirit." BTO gave us a change of pace on "Lookin' Out For No. 1." It's a pretty good cut and is not considered to be hard rock.

The hit single, "Take It Like A Man," is the best cut on the album. Little Richard and his "touch" on the piano makes this cut unforgettable.

"Wonda Take Me For A While" and "Away from Here" have much to be desired. The vocal portions of these cuts seem to be strained at times.

"Born to Die" Grand Funk Railroad's latest album, "Born to Die," is one that may be doomed on the charts because it has slipped in the past few weeks instead of picking up steam.

However, the single, "Sally," may turn this trend around.

The bizarre feature of this album is its gruesome jacket which features the group in coffins wearing tuxedos. This might have been repulsive to some buyers.

Three of the cuts on the album also deal with death or dying. The title cut, "Born to Die," is fair with good vocals and the typical Grand Funk heavy metal sound. "Dues" sounds pessimistic even to the point that "the surgeon general has determined that I may as well die." It has a good fade out ending as well as the cut "Love Is Dying." However, "Dues" at times gets too monotonous and off key.

"Sally," the latest hit single by the group, is very good and is not considered to be a hard rock song. The harmonica solo by Jimmy Hall of Wet Willie helps make this song a hit.

"Politician" is not good musically but is great because of its words. Basically, the song refers to politicians as being deceitful and the need for a true leader among the people. How true!!

The other hit single, "Take Me," is also featured on the album and features their heavy metal sound. However, "Good Things," the instrumental "Genevieve," "Talk to the People" and "I Fell For Your Love" causes the album to drag. Perhaps that is why the album is losing momentum on the charts as well as its jacket and the fact that the group may be losing its appeal.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our dear mother Gracie Walker, who passed away 11 years ago, today March 19th, 1965. Because she was so dear to us in such a special way. Its very hard to put in words how much we miss her more each day. We still love her and miss her more each day. We still love and miss her with all our hearts. No matter where we go or what we do from her we'll never really part. Still Missing. Your Children.
